

Dear Family,

Dr. Jeff Stanfill made a statement last week on a zoom meeting for our pastors. He said, “God doesn’t give an explanation of many things,
but He does give a promise for everything!”

I wrote that down immediately and thought how applicable for the season we’re all walking through. As we enter another week of our ‘stay at home’ and we see the effects of the crisis on our communities, we may not have an explanation, but we definitely have multiple promises. In these 4 great promises, I took the liberty to add a current application:

The Promise of Purpose

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future” ...
even in a Coronavirus Crisis. Jeremiah 29:11

The Promise of Peace

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” ... even in a Coronavirus Crisis. Philippians 4:6-7

The Promise of Presence

God has said, “Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you” ... even in a Coronavirus Crisis. Hebrews 13:5

The Promise of Provision

“And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus” ... even in a Coronavirus Crisis. Philippians 4:19

A few points of information:

As the Corona Days continue, our team has made the decision to cancel our Lead Conference, scheduled for April 27-28. Several matters in regard to needed business and ordination are being discussed, with multiple options available. We will communicate to you as soon as those plans are in place.

Our Covid-19 page, accessed through our website www.laaog.org, continues to be updated with information concerning all things pertinent to our churches and network.

Our next issue of Network News will be an electronic version. The newsletter will be emailed to you on May 7th. We stand ready to serve you in any manner and are continually praying for you.

Blessings,
Scott

Louisiana Assemblies of God
P.O. Box 7388
Alexandria, LA 71306
318.445.6238