Funeral Message for Isabella Grace Genna

Opening Words

Today, we gather with heavy hearts to grieve the loss of a precious life—Isabella Grace Genna. Though her time on earth was brief, her presence was real, her life was meaningful, and her memory will forever be cherished by her family.

Every life, no matter how short, is a gift from God. Isabella was wonderfully made, knit together by God's hand, and loved beyond measure. Though we cannot understand why her time was so brief, we find comfort in knowing that God welcomes little children into His eternal care.

Scripture & Reflection

Jesus said in Matthew 19:14:

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

In this verse, Jesus assures us of His deep love for children. We believe with confidence that Isabella Grace now rests safely in the arms of the Savior.

Psalm 139 reminds us:

“You created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.”

Even at just 18 weeks, Isabella's life was purposeful, precious, and complete in the sight of God.

For her parents, family, and loved ones, grief may feel overwhelming—but God promises in Matthew 5:4: “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.” Today, we lean on His comfort, His presence, and His peace that passes all understanding.

Words of Comfort

Isabella's life, though brief, teaches us the depth of love. Her tiny existence has forever changed hearts and will always be remembered. While we do not have years of memories, we hold on to the truth that love is not measured in time, but in depth. And the love felt for Isabella Grace Genna is eternal.

Though we must say goodbye for now, we trust that one day, through Christ, there will be a reunion in a place where there is no more death, no more sorrow, and no more tears.

Graveside Committal

As we now gather at this sacred place, we commit the body of Isabella Grace Genna to the earth, with hearts that grieve deeply, yet with hope in God's promises.

We commend Isabella's spirit into the arms of Jesus, who said in John 11:25:

"I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die."

Prayer of Committal:

"Gracious Father, we thank You for the gift of Isabella Grace Genna. Though her time on earth was short, her impact is everlasting. Hold Isabella close to You, and bring comfort to her parents and family who mourn her deeply. Surround them with Your peace, strengthen their faith, and assure them of Your eternal love. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Closing Blessing

Now may the Lord bless you and keep you.

May His face shine upon you and give you peace.

And may the God of all comfort carry you through your grief, until the day when all tears are wiped away, and we are reunited forever in His kingdom.

Go in peace, holding on to the hope that little Isabella Grace Genna rests in the arms of Jesus.
