EVALUATIONS AND AWARDS

EVALUATIONS

Each student will receive an Evaluation Sheet from 2-3 qualified evaluators. Evaluators will provide practical growth tips and encouragement for each presentation. The goal is to encourage and inspire children to discover their God-given gifts, developing an excitement about using them for the Lord. The Fine Arts Students Point system will be used for Fine Arts Kids as well. Points will NOT be deducted for violations. However, they will be noted on Evaluation Sheets for future growth.

Up to 30 points	Good
31-35 points	Excellent
36-40 points	Superior

AWARDS

Please go over this with children before the festival to avoid confusion.

- Each participant will receive a certificate for each category he/she enters.
- Awards will be given during the Celebration Presentation.
- Award of Merit recipients will be called forward to receive a medal and have a photo taken.
- How Categories/Participants are recognized during the Festival Celebration:
 - Categories with at least one participant receiving a superior rating are announced.
 - If a Category has presentations/participants without any superior ratings, it will not be announced.
 - The Top 3 participants from each Category are announced.
 - If there are not 3 participants with a superior rating in a Category, the “Top 3” will be altered to “Top Participants.”
- A variety of Award of Merit recipients may be asked to present their entry during the Award Service. Presenters will be selected by evaluators and Fine Arts Coordinators.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. It is the responsibility of each parent and/or adult sponsor to be familiar with the rules. A parent or adult sponsor’s completion of a child’s registration indicates the rules have been read and will be followed.
2. The content of each presentation must reflect the vision of Louisiana Fine Arts.
 - a. Content must display Evident Ministry (communicates biblical truth) and/or a Christian Message (reflects the “message of Jesus”).
 - b. Content must also contain as Overall Effectiveness (displays a quality presentation, appropriate for a Christian-based festival for kids).
 - c. All music must be either Classical or Christian (identified as Christian/Gospel/Worship Categories of the appropriate national charts). Secular music is not permissible and will be disqualified. Contact Louisiana Fine Arts Coordinator at least 4 weeks before Fine Arts Festival if you have questions about content choice.

3. No individual or individuals in a group may register for more than one entry in the same category of a division.
4. In group entries, substitutions may be made ONLY in case of an emergency.
5. Participants should be mindful of their representation of Jesus regarding behavior.
 - a. Be courteous to other participants.
 - b. Do not enter performance rooms when a student is performing.
 - c. Remain quiet inside performance rooms during a performance. Silence all mobile devices during performances.
 - d. Fine Arts Kids participants remain with a leader or parent during Festival.
6. Introductory Comments are great practice for kids in presenting categories.
 - a. Before beginning the presentation, kids should introduce himself or herself. Alternately, one or multiple members of a group must introduce the Group name (not individual students unless that is the name of the Group).
 - b. Next, students introduce their presentation, giving credit by title and composer/artist of any music.
 - c. Participants should not add any other remarks.
 - d. Participants should not state church name or city.
 - e. Introductory Comments do NOT count toward the total time of the presentation. Time begins immediately following the Introductory Comments.

EXAMPLES:

"Hello, my name is/our group name is _____, and I (we) will be presenting name of music piece by name of composer or artist."

"Hello, my name is/our group name is _____, and I (we) will be presenting name of piece."

"Hello, my name is/our group name is _____, and I (we) will be presenting name of piece, including music by name of composer or artist."

7. We will not assess Time Violations to Fine Arts Kids participants, once the time limitation is reached, the timekeeper will call "TIME," allowing participant no more than an additional 30 seconds before asking the Participant to conclude their presentation. Division/Category rules contain time limits.
8. CD's, USB drives, and audio that requires streaming services are not accommodated or allowed.
9. An official puppet stage will be set and is to remain set with the following dimensions: front 4'6" x 6' long and deep; back 5'10" x 18' long.
10. A piano/keyboard will be provided in appropriate presentation rooms.
11. Participants are required to bring cables (patch cords) to run through provided sound equipment.
12. Be on time! If a participant(s) is not available in the presentation room when his/her/their name or group is called, that presentation will be skipped.

PRESENTATION TIME CHANGES WILL NOT BE MADE

UNLESS CLEAR CONFLICT FOR PARTICIPANT IS DISCOVERED.

We will do our best during scheduling to be mindful of churches with multiple presentations.
